Stellar Industries Adds to National Sales Team

Garner, Iowa – Stellar Industries is excited to announce the addition of Alan Marsh to support national sales efforts for Mechanic Cranes and Service Trucks.

Marsh comes to Stellar from within the industry and has over 12 years of experience in a similar role covering mainly the Eastern United States. He managed sales for the territory and conducted product training for dealers and customers. He also has international sales experience.

Marsh's new role at Stellar will include supporting the Stellar regional sales managers in championing sales efforts for mechanic trucks and cranes, developing and implementing sales training efforts for Stellar Industries' distribution, and helping to cultivate new markets in conjunction with the regional sales managers.

"I'm excited to join a company that I believe is vibrant, customer focused and innovative," says Marsh.

"Having a veteran sales person the caliber of Alan Marsh will be a great boost to our sales efforts," says Sean Moran, Sales and Marketing Manager for Stellar Industries.
